Robbery near 7th Street & Hubbell Street

On Friday, June 13, 2008, a UCSF employee left work at the Mission Bay Campus on foot and was robbed of his personal belongings in the area of 7th Street and Hubbell Street (approximately 3 blocks from the Mission Bay Campus). The victim filed a report with the San Francisco Police Department. There was one unidentified witness who saw the suspects get into an unidentified vehicle, but there are no detailed descriptions of the suspects.

Anyone with information regarding this incident is encouraged to contact Sergeant Tracy Boes in the Robbery Division at the San Francisco Police Department at (415) 553-1257 or the UCSF Police Department’s Investigations Unit at (415) 476-6890.

Personal Safety Tips:
Suspects look for crimes of opportunity and certain personal safety measures can be followed to minimize your chances of becoming a victim. These are:

- Travel in groups whenever possible, especially at night.
- Avoid poorly-lit or deserted areas when walking at night.
- Make use of the shuttle and escort services.
- Stay alert to your surroundings. Avoid headphone and cell phone use when walking alone.
- Do not stop in response to conversation starters (i.e. asking for time or directions).
- If you feel you are being followed, go into an open business and ask for help.
- Keep emergency numbers pre-programmed into your cell phone (911, 476-1414).
- If you are faced with demands for your money or property, especially from an armed subject, comply with their demands for the sake of your safety.

Help fight crime by reporting suspicious activity to UCSF PD at 476-1414 or 9-911 for in-progress events.
