May 1, 2012

Anticipated Disruptions to Afternoon Commute

This afternoon, May 1, 2012, UCSF commuters traveling to the East Bay and through downtown San Francisco should anticipate disruptions in their travel due to “Occupy” protests.

At the time of this posting, the UCSF Police Department obtained the following information from the BART website:

Ogawa Plaza entrance/exit at the 14th Street end of 12th Street Oakland City Center is currently closed due to police activity for a protest. The other exits are open at 12th Street. It is unknown when the Ogawa Plaza entrance will reopen.

Commuters in San Francisco should also be aware of possible delays along Market, Van Ness, and Mission Streets due to “Occupy” protests. Check www.sfmta.org for updates.

BART uses its website, text alerts, email alerts and its Customer Services phone line to update passengers on any changes to BART service.

For individuals traveling on BART, to find out real-time information regarding BART service go to their website at www.bart.gov or call BART Phone Center at 510-465-BART (2278).

For urgent matters on BART dial 911, call 510/464-7000, use the train intercom, contact a Station Agent or inform San Francisco Police (emergency) 911 or 415/553-8090.

Know your alternative transportation plans: Visit www.511.org or dial 511 for more information about alternative commute options including current traffic conditions and possible public transit delays. Also, check local news outlets, such as KGO 810 and KCBS 740, for updates prior to traveling.

Help fight crime by reporting suspicious activity to UCSF PD immediately. For emergency or in-progress events, dial 9-911 when using on-campus land lines and 415/476-6911 when using cell phones. For non-emergency calls, please dial 415/476-1414.

04-12-08CP

Together for a Safe and Crime Free Campus

Pamela E. Roskowski
Chief of Police

This alert is a public service to the University community and in compliance with the Jeanne Clery Act of 1998